A FAMILY-OWNED CRAFT DISTILLERY FROM CANADA'S PACIFIC COAST

Founded in North Vancouver, British Columbia, The Woods Spirit Co. is a family-owned, female-led craft distillery shaped by the natural beauty and abundant ingredients of Canada's West Coast.

Built on a foundation of curiosity, innovation, and craftsmanship, Celia Chiang and the Team at Woods is committed to creating exceptional spirits that honour quality ingredients, our community, and the moments that bring people together.

Guided by the triple bottom line (people, planet and prosperity) and meticulous attention to detail, we blend traditional distilling principles with modern techniques to create spirits that are thoughtful, distinctive, and inspired by beautiful British Columbia.

BORN FROM THE LANDSCAPE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

From Farm. To Still. To Spirit.

The character of every spirit begins with the quality of its ingredients. Crafted from carefully selected Canadian grain and botanicals inspired by the forests and coastline of the Pacific Northwest, The Woods Spirit Co. creates spirits with a true sense of place.

Through trusted relationships with our farmers and a commitment to thoughtful craftsmanship, we honour every step of the journey — from the land, to the still, to every bottle.

THE ART OF VACUUM DISTILLATION

Innovation is at the heart of our craft.

Our one-of-a-kind commercial vacuum distillation system was custom designed in collaboration with PhD engineering professors from the University of British Columbia – allowing us to rethink how flavour is captured and preserved. As one of the few distilleries in North America to integrate vacuum distillation across an entire spirits portfolio, we use this technology to create spirits with exceptional purity, freshness, and depth.

By distilling at lower temperatures, we gently extract delicate aromas from organic citrus, wild botanicals, and natural ingredients – preserving flavours that traditional high-heat distillation can lose.

A process requiring more time, precision, and craftsmanship – but creating a difference you can taste.

SCIENCE. PRECISION. CRAFTSMANSHIP.
